Catcher Buckley Tries to Throw Out a Runner and His Hand Strikes a Bat.

The Ball Goes Rolling and Two Runs Are Scored-Results of Other League and Association Games-General Sporting News.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal

Boston, June 1 .- Boston defeated Indianapohis this afternoon by two runs, and those two runs were obtained by a most peculiar accident. It was in the third inning. The bases were full of Bostonians, and Morrill was at the bat. Buckley endeavored to catch Johnston napping at third, but as he threw the ball his hand struck Morrill's bat, the ball went rolling and Johnaton and Kelly scored. As a whole the game was rather loosely played, but there were notable exceptions. Denny played a great game at third; Seery made two excellent fly catches in left field, and Hipes made the finest fly-eatch seen on the grounds this year. It was this way: Wise hit a sky-scraper toward short right field. Paul started for it and by lively sprinting caught it in one hand while on the dead run. The score:

DETROIT, 4; PHILADELPHIA, 2. PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Detroit won to-day's game from Philadelphia in the fifth inning, when singles by Twitchell and Bennett, a double by Richardson, and a home-run hit over the right-field fence by Brouthers produced four tallies. Casey was hit hard throughout the game, and it was only owing to the splendid character of his support that the champions' score was kept down to so small a figure. The batting of Brouthers and the work of the Philadelphia outfield were the features. Score:

The Latonia Race Track.

CINCINNATI, O., June 1 .- The sixth day at Latonia was pleasant, the weather being cool and clear. The track was a trifle slow, but in excellent condition. Mr. Sheridan arrived last night and started the horses. His starting is simply par excellence, and the five races on the card were finished an hour earlier than heretofore. It was a good day for the book-makers, as not a first favorite won. Three winners were very short. Drumstick, in the first race, was a 12 to 1 chance; Martin Russell was a 10 to chance in the second race, and the third race was won by Longalight, another 10 to 1 chance. Better odds could have been obtained from some of the book-makers. There was another large

They got off at the first attempt, with Colonel Owens in the lead, closely followed by Una B., and Antonio. In the back stretch Drumstick moved up first and held that position under the wire, winning by a neck; Elyton second, Colonel Owens third. Time, 1:294.

Second Race—Selling purse, for two-year-olds; five furlongs. The horses were a little hard to start, and made several breakaways, but when they did get off they were well bunched. Jake Miller took the lead and held it well into the stretch, when Martin Russell and Winning Ways closed up on him, Martin Russell winning by a length from Winning Ways second, Jake Miller third. Time, 1:03. The post odds on Martin Russell were $10 to $1. Third Race-A free handicap for three-year-olds and upwards; nine furlougs. They got away on the first attempt. As they passed under the wire Asceola was first, with Benedict second and Longalight third. Asceola held the lead all the way to within a few feet of the wire, with Longalight alongside of him, Longalight won by a head from Asceolo, second, a length in front of Lottie Wall, third. Time, 1:57. Post odds on Longalight were $10 to $1.

odds on Longalight were $10 to $1.

Fourth Race—Sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upwards; one mile. A splendid start was made, with Beaconsfield slightly in the lead. He kept the lead all the way, winning the race by a length from Sunbeam, second, Mamie Hunt third. Time, 1:43\frac{1}{2}.

Fifth Race—The Latonia Oaks, $1,000, for three-year-old fivies; one mile and a quarter. The fillies got off in good shape at the second attempt, with Julia L. showing up in front. As they passed the stand Falerne was in front, closely followed by Los Angeles and Lela May. In the back well into the stretch, when Lavinia Belle, who had been running second, moved up and won by haif a length from Julia L., second, Los Angeles third. Time, 2:121.

Racing at St. Louis. Sr. Louis, June 1 .- The sixth day of the St. Louis meeting was signalized by the breaking of a turf record. It was the performance of mile and one-sixteenth in 1:471, which is onefourth second less than that of Jim Douglas at Chicago in 1886. The track was fast, the weather cloudy, with slight rain at times. Ow-

Wheeler T., which, in the first race, ran one ing to strong complaint from the horsemen, Robert Pate, the starter, resigned, and Captain C. W. Bellaire, superintendent of the track, took his place and did good work.

First Race-Street railway purse, $600; one mile and one-sixteenth. Lelex lead off at the Sayre was first on the back stretch, but Wheeler T. came into the home stretch like a comet and wen, a length from Sayre second, Lelex third. Time, 1:47‡, one-quarter of a second better than the best recorded time for the distance. Second Race—Selling purse, $600; seven fur-longs. King Idle was left at the post. Fraud was first away, but at the balf Lafitte came up and won without an effort, a length the best of Alfred, second, he lapped with Lucy Johnson, third. Time, 1:294. Third Race-Merchants' Eclipse stakes, $800. for three-year-old and upwards; one mile and a quarter. At the start the order was: Paragon, Terra Cotta and Unite, which was preserved into the stretch, when Terra Cotta came out and won under a pull, two lengths from Paragon, second; Unite four lengths behind. Time, 2:10½.

Fourth Race—Purse, $600; half a mile. Fan King led into the stretch, but Mackenzie stole up towards the finish, and won by a neck; Alpena third and Fairy last. Time, 50½ seconds

Fifth Race—Purse, $600; six furlongs. Bankrupt led into the stretch and won easily, two langths from Minch, second: Kitty Pease third. lengths from Minch, second; Kitty Pease third. Time, 1:16.

THE FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

Passage of the Bill Promoting Sheridan-Discussing the Mills Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 1 .- On motion of Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, the Senate bill to authorize the Fort Smith & Choctaw Bridge Company to construct a bridge over the Poteau river, near Ft. Smith, Ark., was taken up and passed. Mr. Spinola, of New York, renewed his effort for the child. am oc to have passed the Senate bill to revive the rank of General of the Army for the benefit of Lieutenant-general Sheridan, but Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, again objected.

Mr. Randall suggested that the bill might be passed on Monday, under a suspension of the rules, and it was laid over.

Under the call of committees for reports, Mr. Newton, from the committee on public buildings, reported bills to authorize the construction of a public building at Burlington, Ia.; appropriating $12,000 for the completion of the public building at Peoria, Ill., and increasing the appriation for the erection of a public building at Winons, Minn.

Mr. Mills, of Texas, rising in his place, asked, in the name of the confederate soldiers, living and dead, that the House consider the Sheridan bill; but Mr. Kilgore persisted in his objection.

Mr. Spinola, of New York, again sought to bring the Sheridan bill before the House by asking consent to report it back from the committee on military affairs. It had been referred to that committee after the preceding Private business having been dispensed with, the regular order was demanded, being the appeal of Mr. Peters, of Kansas, from the decision of the Speaker pro tem., Mr. McMillin, that the legislative appropriation bill need not be again considered in committee of the whole-A division was had, resulting in the rejection of the appeal by a vote of 112 to 47, but the point of no quorum was made by a number of Republicans, who desired to force the House to act upon the Sheridan bill before proceeding with other business. Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, stated that time might be saved if the other side would allow the House to consider the Sheridan bill.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, declared that the Democratic side of the House had shown its desire to consider the bill. The yeas and nays were then ordered. The Republicans generally refrained from voting. When Mr. Mason's name was called, he asked to be excused from voting, announcing that he did not propose to vote on any measure until the Sheridan bill was passed, while he [Sheridan]

The Speaker pro tem. refused to entertain Mr. Mason's request, and the roll-call proceeded, prominent Democrate taking turns meanwhile in the effort to induce the objectors to the Sheriden hill to withdraw from their opposition. The roll-call showed no quorum, and a call of the House was ordered, but proceedings under it were dispensed with, and Mr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, asked consent to consider the Sheridan bill, Mr. Kilgore withdrawing his objection after expressing his general objection to this class of hasty legislation.

Mr. Steele, of Indiana, said that the committee on military affairs had carefully considered the bill, and the proceedings were not characterized by undue baste.

Tributes to the soldierly qualities of Gen. Sheridan were paid by Messrs. Bynum, of Indiana; Breckinridge, of Kentucky; Cox, of New York, and Kelley, of Peansylvania.

The bill was then passed by a viva voce vote, Mr. Oates, of Alabama, going on record as opposing it, and the House bill on the same subject, introduced by Representative Dorsey, of Nebraska, was tabled. The bill was reported back as duly enrolled by the committee on enrolled bills within half an hour, and, being signed by Mr. Cox, the occupant of the chair, it was dispatched to the White House for approval. The parliamentary difficulties in the way of the legislative appropriation bill were then over-come and the bill passed, with the blank salaries filled in, as it was reported from the appropriations committee. Mr. Sayres, of Texas, reported from the appropriations committee the customs deficiency bill, with the recommendation that the Senate amendments be concurred in, and with further amendments reported by the House committee. These amendments were agreed to and the bil was again sent to the Senate. On motion of Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, Sen-ate amendments to the bill for the protection of the officials of the United States in the Indian Territory were agreed to, and the bill

By arrangement with Mr. McKinley, the time for debate was extended to forty minutes, and the motion prevailed. Mr. Holman, of Indiana, spoke briefly in favor

Mr. McCormick, of Pennsylvania, maintained that there was no such thing as a lumber trust. and that the existing tariff on the lumber was entirely reasonable. Mr. Weaver, of Iowa, had read a magazine article describing the operations of the lumber trust, written by Henry Lloyd. The question was then put to vote on Mr. Adams's amendment (to substitute Jan. 2. 1889. for July 1, 1888, as the date of application of the free list) and it was defeated-yeas, 81; nays,

Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, then offered an amendment to exclude foreign prison-made goods Mr. Mills made the point of order that it was not germane to the subject-matter of the clause. The chairman (Mr. Springer) held that the point of order could only be discussed by unanimous consent, inasmuch as the time allowed by the House for debate and amendment on the paragraph had expired. Mr. Reed, of Maine, gave notice that he would appeal from this decision of the chair. Mr. Buchapan was meanwhil permitted to combat the point of order, but after he had concluded his remarks the Chair decided that his amendment was out of order. The profits of the lumber business were then made the subject of discussion, at the conclusion of which the committee rore, and, pending a decision upon Mr. Mills's motion to limit to ten minutes further debate upon the paragraph, the House took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for consideration of private pension

At the evening session the House passed twelve private pension bills, and at 10:30 ad-

Bills Passed by the Senate. WASHINGTON, June 1 .- The resolution offered yesterday in the Senate, by Mr. Call, directing the Attorney-general to report whether Anastasia island, near St. Augustine, Fla., is the property of the United States, and whether the whole or any part of it is covered by Spanish grants, was saken up and agreed to. The House bill to amend the agricultural colleges act of 1862, and other supplementary acts in regard to experimental stations, was, on motion of Mr. Brown, taken from the calendar, amended in phraseology, and passed.

The Senate then proceeded to consideration of the Indian appropriation bill, and, after debate, it was passed. Adjourned.

He was locked up and may recover. His wife is in a critical condition.

Rioting in a Mining Town.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June L-A dispatch from Bramwell, 'Mercer county, says all the miners in Blue Stone district went out on strike, yesterday, for two weeks' pay, and to add to the excitement, a pegro was arrested for disorderly conduct. After the arrest it was rumored that the whites would take him from the guards and lynch him. At 10 o'clock last night the town was thrown into a violent state of disturbance by about one hundred negro miners marching to Blue Stone Inn, where the prisoner was under guard, and demanding his release. The guards did not surrender him, and the mob general riot ensued. Several men were shot by members of the mob. At a late hour the mob dispersed after several arrests. More trouble is
